

What now for children in Aotearoa/NZ?

YOUR INVITATION

to join UNICEF and child advocate allies
at a post White Paper forum

DATE:

Thursday 8
November 2012

TIME:

10am – 4pm

VENUE:

Executive
Seminar Suite
5B14, Massey
University,
Entrance A,
Wallace Street,
Wellington

Please click here
to view a map or go to wises.co.nz.

THE PURPOSE OF THE EVENT IS TO:

- 1 Revisit unified NGO Green Paper statement – What Will It Take? and examine anomalies/gaps/omissions, between its recommendations and White Paper directions.
- 2 Plan further steps and build connections to influence policy and implementation following the White Paper.
- 3 Inspire participants with a model of supporting young citizens to develop a “handprint for social justice”.

PARTICIPANTS: Contributors to “What Will it Take” and associated allies/influencers.

THE PROGRAMME will include commentary and opportunity for participants to reflect, discuss issues and contribute ideas for next steps.

THE FINAL ADDRESS WILL BE FROM BRONWYN HAYWARD, author of “Children Citizenship and Environment – nurturing a democratic imagination in a changing world”. Bronwyn is a Senior Lecturer in Political Science at the University of Canterbury and is well recognised for her expertise in the politics of child and youth participation and active citizenship.

To register please use the form attached by November 1.

*A small contribution of $15 is asked to cover catering costs.
If payment is a problem please contact barbara@unicef.org.nz re a waiver.*