

“Lets talk about preventing sexual violence”
Free workshop

Around 1 in 4 girls and 1 in 8 boys in New Zealand have experienced sexual abuse.

1 in 3 Auckland women will experience physical or sexual violence from a partner in their lifetime

This is a free education workshop designed for families and whanau where we will learn:

- How to talk about this type of harm in a sensitive manner.
- Increasing awareness to reduce harmful sexual behaviour in the home.
- Increasing safety through changing practices in families and communities.

Monday 20th October 9 – 3pm at Whiti Te Ra O Reweti Marae 1285 State Highway16, Waimauku.
includes morning tea and lunch.

To register please email: korowai@korowaitumanako.org or text or call Russell on 027 422 6282

Numbers limited to a maximum of 20 participants

Russell and Joy are senior practitioners whom have worked with families and whanau affected by sexual violence and abuse for a combined 22 years.

Our GOALS and OBJECTIVES

To provide Sexual Violence Prevention and Intervention services for families and their communities including Treatment for children, young people and adults who have engaged in inappropriate or Harmful Sexual Behaviour.

Korowai Tumanako has developed and delivered a treatment approach that has proven to be highly effective in all communities.

Russell Smith & Joy Te Wiata

+ 64 27 422 6282

+ 64 27 370 2091

Email: korowai@korowaitumanako.org

www.korowaitumanako.org

Kindly supported by Auckland Council and Te Rito Rodney