

TEAM TANI cordially invites you to the

14th Annual Asian Forum

Please join us and explore the meaning of “cultural competence” in NZ context. Connect with the like-minded professionals from the health & social sector !

When: Tuesday 19 April 2016

Time: 9:00 – 3:30pm

(Doors open from 8:30am for registration)

Where: Fickling Convention Centre,

546 Mt Albert Road, Three Kings, Auckland

Who can attend?

- Health & social sector professionals and volunteers
- Public health or health & social science students
- Community leaders
- And of course other movers & shakers ☺

FREE ENTRY

Keynote speakers of the day are:

- Mr. Te Miha Ua-Cookson, Manager Infrastructure, Public Health National Services Purchasing, National Health Board, Ministry of Health, shall talk about the background of the review for Public Health Workforce Development Plan (PHWDP), Health Strategy 2015 and Ministry on the Move.

- Sionie Tu'itahi, CEO, Health Promotion Forum of NZ
From Socio-Cultural Diversity to Unity in Diversity:
Exploring Health Promoting Pathways for Our Common Future and Hauora. As an educator, health promoter and human rights advocate, Sione will examine the topic, using the Ottawa Charter, and Te Tiriti o Waitangi as a framework.

And a range of interesting speakers and a couple of workshops are planned.

Asian cuisine will be provided for your lunch!

You are encouraged to register soon as the spaces are limited for this fun-filled day of learning!

Click here for your registration or

E-mail Helena at Helena.ong@asiannetwork.org.nz