
Adult Students: Social Work and Teaching Information Evening

Tuesday 5 July 2016
6-8pm

Epsom Campus,
The University of Auckland

Bring your life experience to social work and teaching.

Did you know that more than half of the students at the Faculty of Education and Social Work are adult students?

This information evening is a perfect opportunity to find out about the Special Admission pathway for adult students who don't have a formal university entrance qualification and to talk to our advisers about what tertiary study involves and the study options available to you.

Explore opportunities to study a social work or teaching degree with the University of Auckland in 2017.
